

THE FRIENDS OF MAPLE GROVE

Not for Profit Organization – Est. 2005

“Where history comes alive!”

“Rhapsody in Colors”

SUZANNE GILCHREST (Flute)

KAREN LERNER (Piano)

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2026

3 PM - 4 PM

Brownson Center at Maple Grove Cemetery

127-15 Kew Gardens Road

Kew Gardens, NY 11415

Free Parking in Cemetery,

Accessible Building

Limited Seating

Please RSVP at (347) 878 6613

Dedication – Eli Smith Hoadley (1826 – 1890) A noted pianist who kept a music store in Springfield, Mass. Taught music in the Williston Seminary in Easthampton. He is the author of two musical works with William Mason. Eli started the first music society in Brooklyn. Named The Hoadley Society.

Website: www.friendsofmaplegrove.org

Email: info@friendsofmaplegrove.org

YouTube and Facebook as Friends of Maple Grove

Instagram: historicmaplegrove

Our videos will be available for viewing on our YouTube channel.

Our events are made possible with the support of:

MEMBERS and PATRONS of the Friends of Maple Grove Cemetery, The Maple Grove Cemetery Association, The Office of Queens Borough President Donovan Richards Jr. and Councilmember Lynn Schulman.

